Read the following poem titled 'Last Lesson of the Afternoon' by D. H. Lawrence and answer the questions given below (Q. No. 101 to 110) :

When will the bell ring, and end this weariness ?
How long have they tugged the leash, and strained apart,
My pack of unruly hounds ! I cannot start
Them again on a quarry of knowledge they hate to hunt,
I can haul them and urge them no more.
No longer can I endure the brunt
Of the books that lie out on the desks; a full threescore
Of several insults of blotted pages, and scrawl
Of slovenly work that they have offered me.
I am sick, and what on earth is the good of it all ?
What good to them or me, I cannot see !
So, shall I take
My last dear fuel of life to heap on my soul
And kindle my will to a flame that shall consume
Their dross of indifference; and take the toll of their insults in punishment ? – I will not ! –
I will not waste my soul and my strength for this.
What do I care for all that they do amiss !
What is the point of this teaching of mine, and of this Learning of theirs ? It all goes down in the same abyss.
What does it matter to me, if they can write
A description of a dog, or if they can't ?
What is the point ? To us both, it is all my aunt !
And yet I'm supposed to care, with all my might.
I do not, and will not; they won't and they don't; and that's all !
I shall keep my strength for myself; they can keep theirs as well.
Why should we beat our heads against the wall
Of each other ? I shall sit and wait for the bell.
